The debut release of new hip hop record label Thug Life Army Records (TLA Records) is ready for release with the ‘HELD HOSTAGE’ EP from west coast hip hop luminary, LA’s own Binky Mack on March 27th for free download.

Super hip hop star, rap artist, west coast producer and ‘hood legend’ Binky Mack is proud to announce his latest project is to be released on March 27th exclusively on ThugLifeArmy.com and ThugLifeArmyRecords.com for free download.

Binky Mack released the first single off the EP ‘HELD HOSTAGE’; ‘The Reporter’, to fans January 19th. Now the hip hop ‘hood legend’ releases the ‘official’ street single ‘The Reporter Remix’ featuring hip hop artist Don Doe as the first radio release from the EP. It is being serviced to radio now.

Both singles are available for free download now and the full EP, ‘HELD HOSTAGE’, will be available for free download on March 27th at www.ThugLifeArmy.com and www.ThugLifeArmyRecords.com thru this excellent opportunity from the hip hop giant Binky Mack.

Although the EP will be available for free download, starting March 27th until May 1st when the ‘hard’ copy CD and LP will be available in stores. Exclusive to the CD and LP will be the instrumental versions of all the tracks.

The ‘Held Hostage’ EP has two featured artists on two different tracks. The track ‘America’ features Binky Mack’s fellow member of allfrumtha I; well know west coast rap artist Squeak Ru.

The track ‘The Reporter – Remix’ features another well known west coast rap artist Don Doe.

This latest project from Binky Mack is a solo EP, which makes this release unique. ‘HELD HOSTAGE’ is the first solo release by Binky Mack in his illustrious career.

About Thug Life Army Records:

Thug Life Army Records debut release is the Binky Mack ‘Held Hostage’ EP. Thug Life Army Records was started by Frank Miranda and RB Riddle as an outlet for the unsigned artist. With so much good hip hop being ignored by the major labels, Thug Life Army Records wants to help expose those underground artists who can help keep hip hop culture alive.
