The final competition of Cuervoton talent search in New York City May 18th will be hosted in the Nokia Theatre in Times Square. This concluding event of the nationwide competition will include widely-known hip-hop and rap headliners Raekwon, Pitbull and NORE.

A star-studded Latino hip-hop lineup of performers including Tony Touch, Chingo Bling, Malverde Wu-Tang Latino's Rameses Notch and LDA, all touched up by the familiar voices of emcees of the night Jewelz Lopez (WKUTU 103.5FM) and Boy Wonder (Chosen Few, El Draft).

The Nokia Theater is noted throughout venue history for its standout events and concerts. Cuervoton will make history, as it will be the first-ever reggaeton concert held at the Times Square theater.

The competing acts at the event will perform in front of the judging eyes of Machete Music and Wu-Tang Latino representatives Ray Roq Acosta and Ed Rosa. The chosen winning act will be meeting with the two mentioned music labels, along with landing a slot on the Cuervoton Vol. 2 CD.

In addition, through the Cuervoton program, LIFEbeat has played a major role in spreading HIV/AIDS prevention awareness through the distribution of prevention materials at the event venues.
