The Tupac Amaru Shakur Center for the Arts' mission is to provide training and support for students who aspire to enhance their creative talents.

Founded by the mother of late hip-hop icon and legendary rap artist Tupac Shakur (2Pac), the Tupac Amaru Shakur Center for the Arts' mission is to provide training and support for students who aspire to enhance their creative talents.

The Tupac Amaru Shakur Center for the Arts' believes that each and every child desires freedom to creatively express themselves. They provide an environment that encourages freedom of expression, serves as a resource for families, and empowers via education.

Judge Mablean Ephriam and Ms. Afeni Shakur, on behalf of the Tupac Amaru Shakur Foundation, celebrate the H.U.F. Awards Father's Day Celebration at the Fox Theater Egyptian Ballroom 660 Peachtree St. NE, in Atlanta, GA 30308.

The First Annual Atlanta-Based H.U.F. Awards will be hosted by Donnell Rawlings (Dave Chapelle, Spiderman 2) on Friday, June 16th at 7:00PM.

Presiding over divorce cases on Fox TV Divorce Court, Judge Mablean has seen and heard it all. Issues surrounding family, especially the presence of a strong, loving and hard working father is very dear to her. She strongly believes that the positive interaction between a supportive and caring father and his children, nurtures the inner spirit, and paves the way toward healthy adulthood and society.

From over 100 worthy nominees, awards will be given to those men who play a vital role in the development of their children's lives with the intentions of reaching out to communities to perpetuate good quality and responsible attributes of African American and Latino/ Hispanic fathers.
