The Eazystreet Kidz Foundation was inspired by the many selfless contributions made by hip hop, gangsta rap icon Eric 'Eazy-E' Wright while working in the Entertainment Industry. Erin E.B. Wright (the daughter of Eric 'Eazy-E' Wright) and her mom Tracy Jernagin were compelled to establish an organization that both honored the little known Generosities of the Controversial Rap artist and also continue to build on the foundation he established through his acts of Benevolence.

As a result the Eazystreet Kidz Foundation was founded in 1996 one year after Eric 'Eazy-E' Wright's passing and their motto is "Paving an Eazystreet for Kidz"! They are committed to helping in paving the way for the millions of children living in below sub-standard conditions!

Eric Wright's charitable attributes were truly and passionately from the bottom of his Heart!

You so often heard about all of the Negative Controversy behind "Eazy-E" and his famous hip hop gangsta rap group 'N.W.A.', yet all of the Positive and Charitable Acts of Eazy-E were "NEVER" Highlighted or recognized by the media.

Although Eric Wright wasn't a charitable man just to get media attention at all, if it was for that purpose he would have personally made sure there were 'News Cameras' around for every Charity Event he participated in. But to the Contrary Eric Wright "QUIETLY" became a Philanthropist by just naturally doing what his Heart told him to do weather anyone was taking notice or not. Eric 'Eazy-E' Wright was so much more than what most people know, much in the way Tupac Shakur (2Pac) is misrepresented by many). This is why the Eazystreet Kidz Foundation carries on his efforts and his name in all of our Philanthropic Efforts through the Eazystreet Kidz Foundation.

To all Eazy-E's true fans - Please help in making this years Toy Drive a "HUGE" success so that the Eazystreet Kidz Foundation can bring smiles to the faces of many under privileged children! Just as Eric 'Eazy-E' Wright did during his time on this Earth, he truly made a Difference!
