Wedding bells and CD sales will be the main focus for the hip hop "Queen of the Coast," hip hop rap artist Gail Gotti of the Infamous/G-Unit and her fiancé rap artist Kurupt of the hip hop legendary rap group The Dogg Pound.

The hip hop and rap communities hottest power couple has set two dates.

Their wedding will take place on August 19, 2007 in Kurupts hometown of Philadelphia, PA. Additionally, the hip hop powerhouse duo will release a full-length album this summer as well through Penagon Enterprises, owned by Kurupt and Night-In-Gail Entertainment, owned by Gail.

The two hottest songs off the album are currently on both their MySpace pages, entitled 'Ride it Out' and 'Rap or Death'.

'Rap or Death' was produced by hip hop crew Mobb Deep member Havoc, the latter features Mobb Deep's Prodigy, and was produced by Tek Nizzle.

The dynamic duo has gotten high praises for both of their new songs and both of these songs show that the couple has the complete and total backing of Mobb Deep as well as hip hop and rap fans alike. The songs are just a little taste of what is sure to be the summers biggest Billboard topping album.

Please check their MySpace sites and check out the music:
