

Holy Hip Hop Honors Hispanic Heritage Month

Written by Robert ID2902

Tuesday, 01 August 2006 21:56 -

Holy Hip Hop Honors Hispanic Heritage Month with bible study and hip hop / rap concert in Torrance California.

Christian hip hop and rap artists T-Bone, Christside Souljahz, Big City and others will hit the stage to celebrate the gospel and demonstrate diversity in holy hip hop music

Living Logos Enterprises and The Zera Foundation present The Faith Fighter Bible Study and Holy Hip Hop Concert at El Camino College just in time for Hispanic Heritage Month.

Hispanic Heritage Month (September 15 - October 15) recognizes the contributions of Hispanic Americans, and celebrates Hispanic legacy and culture. This August, Faith Fighter Live 2006 showcases cross-cultural artists and offers an exciting way to kick-off observances. Faith Fighter™ Live is a collective effort between Holy Hip-Hop performers, business owners and ministries to serve as a vehicle to reach today's youth with The Gospel. The cooperative focus is spiritual development and life enrichment for young adults, and is accomplished through Bible Studies, Concerts, and Special Events.

Faith Fighter organizer Willie Hudson, affectionately known as "Pops", believes that "God is truly raising up a new generation of leaders... It is up to us to stretch them, inspire them and successfully reach this generation for Christ!" He is passionately committed to bridging the gap between Hip Hop Culture and Christianity through bible studies and other live events.

Big City of Mind Right Productions will be leading bible study at 4pm, and Grammy nominated Holy hip hop / rap Artist T-Bone headlines the concert immediately following. Other confirmed artists include: DJ Gabriel, Christside Souljahz and 5-time Grammy nominated gospel rap artist Scoob Serious.

This year, Faith Fighter Live will give one new Holy Hip Hop artist the chance to share the stage with fellow Faith Fighters T-Bone, Big City and others. Sponsored by Gospellinks.com and wePraise.fm, the contest also offers prizes valued at over $200. Tune in to the Holy Hip Hop Show on wePraise.fm Monday through Friday at 7pm, and on Saturdays at 12pm eastern for your chance to enter the contest and win 2 free VIP Tickets.

Holy Hip Hop Honors Hispanic Heritage Month

Written by Robert ID2902

Tuesday, 01 August 2006 21:56 -

General admission tickets will be available for $20 beginning August 1st, and limited number of VIP Tickets will be sold at $30 each. VIP ticket holders will also receive backstage private round table bible study and free gift bag valued at $65.

The event takes place at El Camino College in Torrance California on August 25, 2006. Doors open at 3:30 pm.

Living Logos Enterprises is actively seeking student volunteers and sponsors for this life changing youth event. Learn more at www.FaithFighterLive.com