On the 7th of February 2006, west coast rap icon Ice Cube officially announced that on June 6th. 2006 he would be releasing his long awaited and anticipated comeback hip-hop album entitled 'Laugh Now, Cry Later' from his own record company Da Lench Mob Records.

Being prominent in the hip-hop music industry, and being an accomplished actor, the legendary hip-hop culture icon Ice Cube is set to fulfill that promise.

Being credited in hip-hop culture as one of the originators of west coast gangsta rap, along with Eazy-E and the gangsta rap group NWA; Cube seems to be keeping guest appearances to a minimum with Snoop Dogg and his Westside Connection comrade WC.

The album will contain 18 tracks, with the street single and accompanying video, "Chrome & Paint," already creating a buzz. The album's first official single is the Scott Storch produced "Why We Thugs" whose accompanying video features an appearance by Mike Epps.

This is Ice Cube's seventh album. The first single is "Why We Thugs" and is already making heat. Watch the video h
