

Tupac Estate To Make Special Announcement

Written by Victoria Hernandez

Monday, 24 August 2015 18:15 - Last Updated Monday, 24 August 2015 18:27

by Victoria Hernandez

The official Twitter account of The Estate of Tupac Shakur said yesterday (August 23) that it is going to make a special announcement today (August 24).

"Return tomorrow at 5pm EST for a special announcement from The Estate of Tupac Shakur," the post reads with a piece of artwork depicting the rapper on a white background with splashes of color. The picture has the quote "Expect me..." written on it.

Follow @2pac for the announcement.

There have been talks about a Tupac biopic directed by John Singleton who worked with the late rapper on Poetic Justice. Singleton stepped down from directing a film that he said was not coordinating with Tupac's estate.

Marcc Rose, who played Tupac in Straight Outta Compton, said that he and Singleton would make a film once Tupac's family were given the rights to make the movie.