Long Island Hip Hop MC Little Vic is set to release his album, Each Dawn I Die on Tuesday, April 8th featuring hip hop and rap notables DJ Premier, Kool G Rap, & Buckwild. Hip Hop MC Little Vic is ready to redirect rap's focus back on New York.

His EP, Each Dawn I Die, features 2 singles that saw great success on the college radio charts: "The Exorcist" featuring DJ Premier and "Caked Up" featuring hip hop notable Kool G Rap. Armed with the release of his long-anticipated follow-up to those singles, Little Vic is proud to release Each Dawn I Die on his own Orena Records.

Little Vic became involved with music at a young age, laying tracks in the studio with his Uncle Paulie, Big KO, and his cousin John. John who became DJ John John, now works closely with major music forces such as Shadyville Entertainment and is known on the New York music scene for his explosive mix tapes, often featuring tracks and freestyles from Little Vic. DJ Whoo Kidd, DJ Domination, DJ Woogie, DJ Front and DJ Eclipse have all brought Little Vic's celebrated hip hop lyrical style to the streets on their impressive mix tapes.
