After the firing of syndicated hip-hop disc jockey "DJ Star"; for attacks against DJ Envy, DJ Envy's wife and 4 year old daughter, and the hip-hop, rap and R&B radio station, Hot 97; 10-year veteran on-air personality Egypt will join New York City's hip-hop radio station Power 105.1 FM morning show as co-host of its new syndicated program LIVE with Tigger & Egypt, replacing the hip-hop station's morning show formerly known as The Star & Bucwild Show, Monday through Friday from 6am-10am ET.

Egypt, better known by her fans as the sexy and vibrant personality heard on Power 105.1 FM's airwaves on the weekends from 6-10pm, has been a notable personality on New York City radio for over 5 years. Prior to joining the Clear Channel family, Egypt was a member of the 107.5 WBLS team as their midday personality. Over her ten-year reign as one of the better known Queens of radio, she was an on-air personality with Philadelphias 100.3 The Beat and later moved on to Baltimores 92Q where she was voted by Baltimore magazine as the #1 personality in the City. In addition, Egypt was named #2 on R&R Magazines Power Player on the Rise? Top 10 List.

Along with her extensive background in radio, Egypt is also a noted television personality. She is better known for her charismatic and warm personality on the syndicated WB daytime TV hit, Home Delivery, where she was a part of a team that helped change peoples lives for the better. The radio and television industries took notice of her versatility and star-quality and awarded her the Executive to Watch Award from NABFEME (National Association of Black Female Executives in Music & Entertainment).

Currently you can catch Egypt on the Internet as host of AOL's Top 11 Countdown and as co-host of UPN's Talk Model, the Internet talk show where she and April (from Cycle 2 of Americas Next Top Model) talk to the recent cast offs of the show and viewers call in with thoughts and questions surrounding the recent episodes.
