"RAGS TO RICHES: MACY GRAY" PREMIERES WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27 AT 11 PM ET/PT on VH1.

VH1's new documentary series, "Rags To Riches" takes a riveting look at the journey inside the American dream and reminds us all that success means little if you can't share it with those less fortunate.

In the latest installment of "Rags to Riches" the Grammy Award-winning and multi-platinum recording artist Macy Gray will take viewers on a trip down memory lane and share her intimate story on how she went from "Rags To Riches."

Premiering Wednesday, February 27 at 11 PM ET//PT, "Rags To Riches: Macy Gray," will culminate with the ultimate give-back, as Macy rewards a well-deserved member of her own community. Watch her as she celebrates the best aspects of human nature: the capacity to overcome hardship through dedicated work and the joy of giving back to those in need.

"RAGS TO RICHES: MACY GRAY" is produced and directed by Academy Award Nominee Lauren Lazin, whose first feature film Tupac: Resurrection (2Pac) was nominated for a 2005 Academy Award.
