Etched in the history of hip-hop culture is the name of Johnny “J” aka Johnny Jackson.

The name Johnny “J”, and the man Johnny “J”, are a part of hip-hop history that can never be over shadowed and his mark as a music producer can never be challenged. Making ‘classic’ hip-hop and rap tracks is his benchmark in a business where it seems that everyone who owns a Casio keyboard now days is a wanna be ‘music producer and beat maker’.

Johnny “J” is a true beat maker. He has sold over 60 million plus records. Johnny “J” is a man who has worked with, and that is recognized as one of the best in the business by many artists and fans.

Johnny “J” is responsible for much of the music laid down beneath the lyrics of the legendary hip-hop icon, rap artist Tupac Shakur (2Pac).

Sometimes when an icon in hip-hop and rap works with, develops and releases a protégée, fans look for the artist they associate the icon with. In Johnny “J”’s case, we all know he made classic records with and was a good friend of the late legendary hip-hop culture icon rapper Tupac Shakur (2Pac).

Johnny “J” and his company Klock Work Entertainment have slowly been developing new artists and doing what Johnny “J” does best – making good music.

Johnny “J” and his Klock Work Entertainment have a new artist whose name is T-Jay.

Johnny “J” along with T-Jay has laid a new Tribute to Tupac track titled ‘Still’. It is not a ‘twisted’ Tupac track, in fact you don’t hear Tupac’s voice at all; but ya can feel his spirit.

So if you want to hear Tupac go buy 'All Eyez on Me' (a classic) and support the real. If you're looking for Tupac chopped and screwed – Johnny "J" doesn't do that either; he doesn't have to – he made the 'classic's'.

Johnny "J" produced another Tupac tribute with his friend Napoleon of the Outlawz. That track was titled 'Never Forget' and was produced by Johnny "J" and the vocals were by Napoleon and featured Val Young. That track and the accompanying video did not get all the shine it deserved. It was truly a classic track.

Although Tupac Shakur (2Pac) was and is Johnny "J"'s friend and he worked along side Pac, he knows that the music must go on and this new track he produced for T-Jay, 'Still' shows that there are still talented MC's out here working the mic and that Tupac (2Pac) may be gone physically but he will never be forgotten.

In the mold of the Napoleon and Johnny "J" tribute song 'Never Forget', which featured Val Young; the track from T-Jay is another 'classic'. The T-Jay Tupac Tribute 'Still' is produced by Johnny "J" and has those amazing Johnny "J" beats that we all love. The flow that T-Jay displays on this track leaves you wanting to hear more from this amazing new Klock Work Entertainment artist, and don't worry he is coming with an album produced by Johnny "J" very soon.

We are privileged to be the first to present the Johnny "J" and T-Jay – Tribute to Tupac track 'Still' in this On-Line Exclusive for the ThugLifeArmy.com Network.

Thanks to Johnny "J", his Klock Work Entertainment Company and of course T-Jay for letting us have this amazing track as an exclusive and for all the friendship and support Johnny "J" has afforded us. We feel very blessed for his friendship.

T-Jay is an amazing young man. We are going to be doing an interview with him and just sit and get to know him before his album comes out.

U and Johnny killed the game u yall niggaz made still down now still frown kuz im whising u wuz still around.

U in a better place so imagine how u feel now, ye memory lives on so I guess u still get around.

Alot rapprs wana bite yo shit i ain't trippen just let u know how tight u iz.

Johnny mlsing u like krazy we racking them up now every thing a touch goes platum plus. Sit back arid i bust im so motavated my flow iz rated i know they hate it ur so the greatest ill go and say it Pac I never knew u, but it felt like I did that letter 2 my unborn child it felt like my kid.

Everything u talked about man it felt like I did and when u pass'd I know a million people felt like I dld "Sad". But wait I tryna make another life goes on this on this mic that im on inspires me 2 wright more songs.

Me Johnny listen 2 producers reck yo songs a thug nlggaz in the house so u can rest yo dome. Pac U waz the best that I known and Johnny J said that its a must that I rep now that u gone.

Missing u so and we just listen 2 old 1s u and Johnny shared kodak moments we picture u roll'n. Now we pouring out a lil liquor haters get a lil sicker kuz I put down and its coming 4rm a lil nigga.

This aint the same song with the same hook when u dropped Makaveli u had the whole game shook.

Ur so diverse never had the same look rose 4rm a concrete its like im in that same book.

Same crooks live and die niggaz barley getten by tine gos by puffin ly while im gettn high.
