

West Coast Hip Hop Couple to Drop 'Fatal Attraction'

Written by Keith ID3308

Friday, 09 February 2007 06:32 -

West coast hip hop notables, rap artists Kurupt and Gail Gotti have been busy working on their new album titled "Fatal Attraction". According to the hip hop 'Queen of the Coast' Gail Gotti the album is set to drop the summer of 07. The album will drop on Koch / Penagon Records / Night In Gail Ent.

The Hip Hop "Queen of the Coast," rapper Gail Gotti had confirmed right after Christmas that she and rap artist and hip hop entrepreneur Kurupt, of the gangsta rap crew the Dogg Pound, got engaged on Christmas Day.

Gail Gotti is one of the members of the Infamous G-Unit family and owner of Night-In-Gail Entertainment. Gail Gotti is easily one of the hottest hip hop female artists out now. Her ability to rap with anyone in hip hop is a strong example of her talent and her love for hip hop. Gail Gotti has a mixtape out now called 'Indecent Proposal'. You can find out more about that on her MySpace page at <http://www.myspace.com/gailgotti818>

Also visit Kurupt's Official Page on MySpace at www.myspace.com/therealkurupt to listen to new tracks and watch new videos

And be sure to watch for "Fatal Attraction" from Gail Gotti and Kurupt this summer. We will have more on this as time gets closer and more details are learned.