Hip Hop notables Butch Cassidy & Damizza have combined forces for their collaborative debut album, Back B4 You're Lonely in stores April 3 on Damizza's Baby Ree Reecordingz. Butch Cassidy is an accomplished singer who has sung on hits from hip hop and rap notables like Snoop Dogg, G-Unit, Mystikal and others.

Damizza is a former Los Angeles radio executive turned producer-rapper who has worked with Mariah Carey, hip hop notables Bone thugs-n-harmony, hip hop icons Westside Connection and more. Now, after working with one another for several years and building their respective brands they have a tremendous collaboration for 2007. Baby Ree has a label distribution deal with Fontana/Universal.

The future smash and lead single, "Cruzin" is already generating radio play throughout the Western parts of the United States without even a white label being pressed up. The song's addictive nature makes it a natural fit for music fans of all backgrounds.

Even though Butch Cassidy and Damizza are the commanding forces of Back B4 You're Lonely, the collection also features a bevy of emerging of West Coast hip hop and rap talent. "Gangsta Lean" pairs Butch Cassidy and Damizza with Jayo Felony, Titus and Down, while "A View From The Top" places Damizza with Dr. Dre's new protégé Bishop Lamont, Vanessa Marquez and Roccett. Elsewhere, Taje and Noni Spitz join Damizza on "Click Clack."

For Damizza, featuring up-and-coming artists is a natural, positive thing to do.
