There is an album posted on HMV in the UK for a NEW Tupac album.

The album is called 'Ready to Die', with a release date of Jan. 31, 2005.

Here is the the listing for the album:

"Unreleased material by this megastar rapper has been unearthed, which is the spawn of "Ready 2 Die", containing such masterpieces as "Murda Me", "That's Right", "The Money" and "Don't Go To Sleep", making this album a unique concept, and needed by all his fans. Suge Knight takes control of the role of executive producer for the album."

HMV has been around and doing business for quite a long time. So I don't know much or have heard much about this album. Here is the cover art and the track listing. You can visit HMV H ERE if you are interested in ordering it. They have pre ordering.

Track Listing:
