The first single off of rap legend Tupac Shakur's latest album 'Loyal To The Game' is now due to drop the first week of November.

The official release date is December 7th.

This latest posthumous release by Tupac has caused many Tupac fans to be unhappy with Amaru and Interscope records.

Online petitions have been started and fans are speaking out. The petitions have been getting many signatures as it seems many of Tupac's fans can not understand the direction of where Tupac's music is headed.

Producing by Rapper Eminem and 'guest' appearances by other artist including 50 Cent, Young Buck, Obie Trice, and Lloyd Banks plus a 'special' appearance on a track by Eminem seem to be the topics that are causing much unhappiness.
