Friday, December 5th in Denver Colorado there will be a charity event raising funds for the Colorado Make-A-Wish Foundation. The foundation provides “wishes” for children with life threatening diseases and this is their 25 year anniversary.

Working with companies like Macy’s, the foundation is working hard to make sure children with severe illnesses are getting a chance to have a wish come true, which can include anything from a puppy to a trip to Disneyland.

The Winter Wonderland event, the ‘Winter White Party’ will also be raising funds for this wonderful cause by way of a club night and fashion show. Hosts of this event include Royal House Entertainment and Hot Snowflake of Denver and nightlife entrepreneur and club owner JE Englebert of New York City.

The celebrity guest dj will be Dj Sky Nellor who hails from Australia by way of New York. Her resume includes dj’ing for the likes of hip hop notables P Diddy, Jay-Z and at soirees for Calvin Klein and Giorgio Armani.

The party is going to be filled with a plethora of things to do and see, such as painted beauties by Certified Customs, Santa Clause and his elves and the fashion show which will be amazing. The generous sponsors are listed on their website, which includes Sky Vodka, who will be sending their Sky Vodka Girls to help pass out free shots and free swag all night long.

Other sponsors include Good Bizness Entertainment and John DiTirro Photography. Doors open at Wish Nightclub (corner of Glenarm and Colfax in Denver, Co) at 9:30pm and the fashion show will start promptly at 10:30 with designs from Incroyables by Melissa May, Trendy Trash LA, Hot Snowflake, Rated Fresh, Denco Customs, 44 Wear, and lments.com For more details you can visit the event website at www.ArriveDenver.com

All door proceeds will go to the foundation. “It is my pleasure to help such a great cause. The whole team has been great. I am looking forward to another unbelievable event this time in Denver” says Englebert
