Dead Silence / U.N.eYe recording artist, Jehuniko and his video, "el animal humano," begin airing on MTV this week. The song, produced by hip hop notable Kemo the Blaxican off of Jehuniko's debut solo album, La Pura Vida. The video was directed by Federico Peixoto, of Producciones del Gafeto / Gafeto TV, long time friend and collaborator filmed entirely in Costa Rica. Kemo created a banging and catchy anthem while Jehuniko channels the alter ego and asks for justice.

Upcoming projects include the street album, Spiritual Warfare, released on February 14, 2008. The Almas Intocables album is coming, featuring Jehuniko, Lady Binx and Ikuestion and of course lots of shows.

Through out February and March, catch Jehuniko performing in Houston, San Antonio, Austin and San Francisco with Almas Intocables. Cold in the Hot Sun, the long awaited follow up, arrives late 2008.

You can follow Jehuniko's adventures on National network, SiTV, documenting shows, travel, interviews with International artists and more.

New Jehuniko interview, the Information Revolution column and more interviews with artists, engineers and producers.
