MySpace Music is proud to announce that West Coast hip hop luminary Ice Cube will be performing a free show for his MySpace friends at Ave DC in Washington DC on August 9 - a show being powered by Saints Row 2.

Celebrating the August 19th release of his highly anticipated album "Raw Footage," the legendary west coast hip hop MC Ice Cube will be holding an intimate appearance showcasing his fresh body of work. Attendance is free for 21+ adults for the performance on a first come, first served basis starting at 10 p.m. on August 9.

As one of the founding members of the seminal hip hop / gangsta rap group N.W.A, Ice Cube has never been a stranger to controversy. Articulation through his focused commentary that's always touched upon political and social issues has allowed Ice Cube to stay relevant in the hip hop game and therefore enjoy a successful solo career that's lasted close to twenty years.

As a notable actor-producer as well, Cube is the classic triple-threat, and with "Raw Footage," his ninth solo album slated for an August 19 release on his very own Lench Mob Records, he will be returning to his roots by delivering yet another fiery collection of tracks clouded with politically-focused and thought-provoking wordplay.
