On Thursday, December 29, 2005, Stanley Tookie Williams would have been 52 years old, had the state of California and California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger not killed him. Despite their efforts, they were unsuccessful in killing his spirit and legacy.

Thursday, December 29, 2005 marks the 1st Annual Stanley Tookie Williams Worldwide Redemption Day, Candlelight Vigil and Rally to be held on the West steps of the State Capitol from 4pm to 6pm.

Beginning December 29th, supporters of Stanley Tookie Williams will over the course of the next weeks and months host numerous events to continue the fight to prove Stanley's innocence, anchor his redemptive legacy and continue his work to save youth from lives of crime and violence.
