

Suge Knight and Katt Williams Plead Not Guilty in Robbery Case

Written by [The Wrap] Tim Kenneally

Tuesday, 27 October 2015 15:18 - Last Updated Tuesday, 27 October 2015 15:31

Suge Knight and Katt Williams are not guilty. At least, that's what Suge Knight and Katt Williams say.

Former hip-hop mogul Marion "Suge" Knight and comedian Williams pleaded not guilty to a robbery charge during their arraignment on Tuesday, a spokeswoman for the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office told TheWrap.

Knight and Williams are accused of taking a photographer's camera in Sept. 2014 outside a studio in Beverly Hills.

Earlier this month, a judge determined that there was enough evidence for the case to go to trial.

Knight and Williams are next due in court on Nov. 30 for a pretrial hearing.

In addition to the robbery case, Knight also faces charges of murder and attempted murder stemming from a fatal car incident in Compton, Calif., in January, which left Terry Carter dead and Cle Sloan injured. Knight has also pleaded not guilty to those charges.