

Hip Hop Notables Back Together Again for 'Last Night' Remix

Written by Robert ID3638

Monday, 30 April 2007 01:37 -

Hip hop performer and entrepreneur Sean 'P Diddy' Combs' Bad Boy CD, "PRESS PLAY," has spawned its third hip hop hit single, "Last Night," featuring R&B super songstress Keyshia Cole. "The success of "Last Night" has truly been a blessing," says Diddy. "And you know I had to do a remix."

With that said, P Diddy reached out to hip hop diva Lil' Kim to do a remix for 'Last Night'. After several years of putting their artist/producer relationship on ice, Diddy and the hip hop / rap entertainer Lil' Kim have reunited once again.

"We've always had amazing chemistry together," says hip hop diva Lil' Kim. "It was a great feeling to pick back up where we left off years ago and do it again." The release of "Last Night" (remix) marks Lil' Kim's return to music following her stint in a Philadelphia prison, from which she was released in July 2006.

"It feels great to be working with Lil' Kim again after all these years," muses P Diddy.

Never one to stop a good thing, Diddy reached out to several other big names in music to create additional remixes. Hip hop and rap notables Game, Busta, Rich Boy, Noreaga, and Bad Boy South/Block Enterprises Yung Joc all lent their personal flair to the record.

"I appreciate all of the people who have constantly supported the album and also appeared on the remixes," says the rap mogul. "And a special "thank you" to Keyshia Cole for blessing this track with her beautiful vocals."

"PRESS PLAY" is the hip-hop impresario's first solo collection in five years. The CD made a stunning debut atop the Billboard 200, marking Diddy's return to the #1 spot after nine years. The CD has already spawned two huge hit singles -- "Come To Me," featuring Nicole Scherzinger from The Pussycat Dolls, and "Tell Me," featuring Christina Aguilera. Diddy recently completed a sold-out European tour with Snoop Dogg.