Uniting a new generation of artists from coast to coast including the sizzling island of Puerto Rico, with its unique brand of Hip Hop, this collection presents some of the best of the leading Latin hip-hop, reggaeton, rap and dancehall players.

Latin artists such as: reggaeton pioneer Bimbo showing off his dancehall sounds on cuts “Si Tu Quieres, Yo Quiero”, while the god-father of Latin Hip-Hop Mellow Man Ace displays his rap side on “Mujeres-Benzes”. Then there is established cult favorites Son Doobie best known for his 90s Hemp-Hopper band Funkdoobiest, Cypress Hill Protégé, plus one of Hip Hop Pioneers Kemo the Blaxican (former member of the Delinquent Habits).

The new generation also arrives full force with artists such as: Malverde Los Angeles based rap artist whose rhymes and fast paced rhythms that echoes traditional Mexican music on standout tracks “Oye Mami” and “Oyelo” among other new artists Decal and Celina.
