Reports are that members of hip-hop rap star Fat Joe's "Terror Squad" supposedly got into a bloody brawl after a performance at the Crimson Lounge on Webster Avenue in New York, early yesterday morning.

Police say 5 people were stabbed and cut with a knife and bottle early yesterday morning, when according to witnesses band members got angry at the audience for booing them.

Two people were arrested. It is not clear who was arrested and who was hurt.

The group's publicist says that hip-hop rapper Fat Joe was not at the club.

We will give more as we get it.
