Chino XL showed everyone he was alive and well when he, following an introduction from MTV's Sway; took the stage at the 'Holiday Havoc' at UC Irvine's 'Holiday Havoc' this past week-end.

Nov. 13th and 14th were the dates for this years "Holiday Havoc:The Winter Experience", a follow up to last years "Rock the Bells" show.

Other acts appearing were Cypress Hill, Jurassic 5, and A Tribe Called Quest; who were joined by guest Mos Def. Also rapper and host of MTV's 'Pimp My Ride' Xzbit also performed. As well as Kanye West.

There were multiple moments of silence for rapper ODB who had died Saturday.

The 2 day event was sponsored by The University of California, Irvine.
