

Hip-Hop Rap Label Upset Records Gaining Respect

Written by Robert ID1938

Wednesday, 28 September 2005 22:57 -

Upset Records recording artist and co-founder Doe has done it again with his latest release Yell It Out featuring legendary west coast rap artist E-40 and the late, great rapper, Mac Dre. The single comes off his release On the Run Gettin Money. Doe also has released two other albums; Big City Big Dreams and Doe and Mac present: Scars and Tattoos.

Yell it Out has been getting play on radio stations across the nation, including the San Francisco hip-hip / rap station 106.1 KMEL, Sacramento's 102.5 and Colorado stations KS107.5 out of Denver and Colorado Springs 96.1. The track has also been featured by DJ2FREAKY at various events in and around the Pensacola, Florida area, expanding Does fan-base deep into the South. DJ2FREAKY reports that the track is getting quite a good response in the clubs.

Buzz Magazine has been the most recent publication to expose people to Doe and the rest of the Upset Records family. This months issue (9/05) displays Upset Records artists Doe, Ray Ray, Collision, Von and Bam on the cover as well as spread throughout the inside pages from front to back. The October issue, on shelves on 10/1/05 will also feature the artists in more detail with bios, interviews and more photos.

In addition to this press, Doe has been performing with well known hip-hop and rap celebrities such as rapper Yukmouth and hip-hop / rap artist / producer DJ Quik in order to promote himself. He has been performing in car shows and clubs all over the country including performances in Utah, New Mexico, California, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado.

Check out the official website at www.upsetrecords.com for all the latest news on the artists, upcoming events and show dates and times.

All albums are distributed by City Hall Records and can be found at Hastings, Sam Goody and local music stores nationwide.