

Hip Hop Show Danger Vision Reaches Its 100th Episode

Written by Robert ID3101

Wednesday, 01 November 2006 02:22 -

After 2 ½ years of unrepeated programming, Danger Vision reaches its 100th episode on Manhattan Neighborhood Network. Danger Vision is a Hip Hop video show with Urban Commentary that has hosted the likes on some of the hottest Underground Hip Hop and Rap Artists, Clothing Designers, Actors/Actresses, Producers, Video Directors, and DVD Magazines.

“This is a milestone that we are glad to have had accomplished” says Tommy Danger host of Danger Vision. Danger Vision was originally created as a reality show focusing on Hip Hop Emcee Tommy Danger and it slowly transformed into a platform of Entertainers & Entrepreneurs on their grind. Danger Vision will also be distributed via www.dna.tv on the Internet for the world to become a part of this exclusive re-birth in Hip Hop.

In addition to the distribution deal of Danger Vision, Tommy Danger is scheduled to release his first EP the “Duffle Bag Gang” independently Late December with 2 new music videos for the tracks “Rush” and “Move”. “We are going to keep going hard’ doing it ‘Big’ until we get major backing” says Tommy Danger, Hip Hop’s The Now and Laterman Danger Vision airs weekly on Manhattan Neighborhood Network, channel 56 Fridays at 9:30pm, viewed in over a half a million households in New York City.

Media Contact: Grace Brown

347-342-7879

www.tommydanger.net

www.myspace.com/tommydangernowandlaterman