

Hip-Hop's High Mighty Return May 31st

Written by Robert ID1218

Tuesday, 19 April 2005 15:20 -

As the Soul Controllers of Eastern Conference Records, DJ Mighty Mi and Mr. Eon have carved out a very unique niche in the underground Hip-Hop community; owning and operating one of the longest running and most reputable Urban Indy labels (including EC's Eastern Conference's All-Star series which now runs three deep).

Unlike the hoopsters who only get playing time when the game has long been decided, with 12th Man, High & Mighty prove that there is no such thing as garbage time.

Mr. Eon and Mighty Mi's third full-length LP,

12th Man

, (Hi & Mighty's 1999 Rawkus Records debut, Home Field Advantage, played a major role in propelling Rawkus' ascension as the "it" Indy Label of its time) will be released on 5-31-05 and includes guest spots from Sean Price, Tame One and Princess Superstar.

In typical fashion, Mighty Mi (Mi has previously produced gems for many hip-hop and rap artists including Smut Peddlers, Copywrite, Tame One, Cage, Leak Brothers, Royce 5'9, Ghostface, Kool G Rap, Mobb Deep and luminaries such as Jurassic 5, Dilated Peoples, Big Daddy Kane, Kool Keith and Eminem) produces every single track on 12th Man.

Hip-Hop's High Mighty Return May 31st

Written by Robert ID1218

Tuesday, 19 April 2005 15:20 -

Eon and Mighty Mi keep the warmups on, but sound extra ill during layup drills, trust me...Watch for it May 31st

Track listing and credits for High & Mighty's 12th Man:

1.) Garbage Time

2.) Wonderama

3.) Green Balloons

4.) This Babylon

5.) Star Destroyers

6.) Outta Here

7.) Damaged Goods

8.) Bates

9.) String Music

10.) Barbershop Quartet

11.) Unholy Matrimony

12.) Crack The Egg

13.) Do It Yourself

Hip-Hop's High Mighty Return May 31st

Written by Robert ID1218

Tuesday, 19 April 2005 15:20 -

14.) Dumb