Sean Price (A.K.A. Ruck) along with his partner Rock dropped two impressive LP's as the duo Heltah Skeltah; their 1996 debut Nocturnal (which included the indelible "Leflaur Leflah Eshkoshka") and their 1998 follow-up Magnum Force.

While fans will have to wait a bit longer for another Heltah Skeltah LP, the incessant clamoring for Sean's solo-debut is about to be quenched as Sean Price will release Monkey Barz on 5-31-05 courtesy of Duck Down Records.

Both Hip-hop and Boot Camp Click purists alike have long recognized and appreciated Sean's commanding delivery, powerful voice and clever verses (exemplified by Monkey Barz playful lead-single "Onion Head") and with established vets such as Ayatollah and Agallah and two rising production stars (9th Wonder & DJ Khrysis) contributing beats as well as guest appearances from the Boot Camp Click's core members (Black Moon's Buckshot & 5FT, Smif N Wesson's Tek & Steele, O.G.C.'s Louieville Sluggah and Starang Wondah, Rustee Juxx and Sean's Heltah Skeltah cohort Rock makes two cameo's) the BCC collective is fully in-tact and operational for Sean Price's solo-debut.

Sean Price's Monkey Barz will impact on 5-31-05 and is the first installment of Duck Down's "Triple Threat" summer; which will also include the highly-anticipated Buckshot/9th Wonder collaborative LP, Chemistry, which will drop on 6-21-05 and Smif N Wesson's long-awaited return, Reloaded, which will drop in July.
