RE: Release Official Statement

Dear Sirs:

We are contacting you because we've been informed that you either have statements that are untrue or you have speculations that need to be addressed.

We appreciate your concern, and here is our official statement to the press in direct response to the very disturbing incidents that has happened as of late.

At this time, please find these statements as an official response to any allegations and rumors. We'd like them dispelled immediately. We'd appreciate it if all members of the press allow fair reports and investigations before making any assumptions. As The Game is very fond of all of your publications, and would love to discuss these issues further, The Game has no further comments beyond the statements below at this time:

The Radio Incident:

"We don't understand how one discussion with DJ Zulu, of WKYS, involves The Game at all. We are as disturbed by this incident as he is, and plan on confronting this matter head on, as soon as time permits."

The Attack On Our Headquarters:

"We at the Black Wall Street Headquarters are deeply disturbed that the community is not celebrating that one of its own has made it, but yet devouring it. Yet we are not surprised by this type of violence , as this type of violence has happened for years, but we did not expect it to happen to us at this moment, as we are now giving back to the community. We are all safe, and we appreciate your concerns."

Very Truly Yours,
Shemia Miller
