

Cincinnati Police Issue Warning Over Hip-Hop Shoot Out

Written by Robert ID2591

Saturday, 06 May 2006 16:37 -

Earlier this week the hip-hop entourage of rap artist T.I. was involved in a shoot out along interstate 75 in Cincinnati, Ohio. Rap artist T.I., aka Clifford Harris Jr., and his hip-hop crew were involved in an altercation at a hip-hop club called Club Ritz which is located in one of Cincinnati's suburbs, which lead to the shoot out along interstate 75 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

In that shoot out one of the members of rap artist T.I.'s hip-hop entourage, Philant Johnson, was killed and 3 others were wounded.

Cincinnati Police Officials late Saturday issued a warning to Cincinnati residents, due to tips they have received, about possible retaliation violence connected to the shooting of the hip-hop crew.

Cincinnati Police officials are working on information they have received about people associated with the hip-hop camp of rapper T.I. are in the Cincinnati area looking for retaliation for the past weeks events.

Residents who notice anything suspicious or any one with information is urged to call Cincinnati area Crimestoppers at 513-352-3040.