After rap mogul Suge Knight was shot in Miami a while back, headlines read that he may have shot himself. This turned out to be not creditable according to the Miami police.

Again it seems that in the mainstreams eagerness to have headlines about rap mogul Marion 'Suge' Knight, Founder and CEO of Death Row Records, has some media outlets now finding out that the news they posted on his assets being "frozen" was a hoax.

According to the MontereyHerald.com web site attorneys for both Michael Harris and rap and hip-hop entrepreneur Marion 'Suge' Knight denied the reports yesterday that Mr. Knights assets have been 'frozen'.

Knight's attorney, Darmot Givens of Beverly Hills, called the news reports a "hoax."
