

Rap Artist Fatal Not Signed To The INC

Written by Robert ID2128

Sunday, 20 November 2005 10:55 -

The headlines on some hip-hop and rap sites read 'Fatal Signs To Murder INC.', and again if you check with the rap artists people you can find out that this is not true.

Some of these hip-hop and rap sites hear or see something and run with it without checking it out first.

We got a hold of Fatal's people for an answer to this, as it was a little hard to believe given the current problems of Irv and Chris Gotti.

According to Fatal's people when asked if he is or is signing to Murder Inc. ThugLifeArmy.com was told "Nah there is no truth to that. In the past Chris Gotti has told Fatal "He is working on a budget for him", now that was before this whole scandal they are in, so I highly doubt due to their legal issues they still have budget room for Hussein. If for any reason this changes and Fatal inks a deal with Murder Inc. ThugLifeArmy.com will be notified. Ja and Fatal have collaborated together with a few unreleased joints in the past couple months that's it. Fatal is currently shopping deals with several companies, one which will be the home label of his forthcoming album, after his new exclusive mixtape drops. Hopefully a deal will be finalized and a long awaited Fatal album will be scheduled for "06."

Rap artist Fatal Hussein, famous for his membership in the late rap icon Tupac Shakur's group 'The Outlawz' is preparing a new mixtape that is going to be dropping real soon. More on the mixtape and other events that Fatal has coming will be made available soon, so check back for more details.

Many in hip-hop culture have been waiting to see Fatal make a move and it appears he is on the grind and he is coming strong; so be on the look out.