After years of little activity, the legendary hip-hop rap group Bone Thugs-N-Harmony returned with a vengeance in 2004 and 2005.

In addition to solo releases by Bone members, rap artists Bizzy and Krayzie, the Bone Brothers (Bizzy and Layzie) CD hit with pure fire and Layzie Bone's solo debut 'It's Not A Game' hit the street May 31 with much anticipation bby fans. The legendary hip-hop and rap group, who were discovered by Eazy-E and signed to Ruthless Records in the 90's; also unveiled BONE THUGS-N-HARMONY: GREATEST HITS.

The double-disc set has sold over 260,000 copies since its release earlier this year and continues to be one of Bone Thugs greatest successes. It features many artist, many of icon status in the hip-hop and rap genre. Featured on BONE THUGS-N-HARMONY: GREATEST HITS are west coast rap icon, the late Tupac Shakur; NY icon rap artist the late Notorious B.I.G.; west coast rap artist and CEO of Ruthless Records the late Eazy-E; R&B's Mariah Carey; Krayzie Bone; Phil Collins; Felecia and others.

"Tha Crossroads," which spent two months in 1996 atop the pop charts, is among the overflowing collection of the unit's finest tracks.
