

Young Money Rap Camp Adds Fifth Member

Written by Robert ID1418
Sunday, 22 May 2005 02:20 -

Rap artist Lil' Wayne, best known as the youngest Hot Boy; has added to his Young Money camp. Along with rap artists Maine, Curren$y and Boo, Lil' Wayne has decided to add a fifth member to the hip-hop rap group.

Rap artist Dizzy aka Raw Di has been added to the line up to complete the formula of the Young Money atom bomb ready to destroy the game at all costs. Dizzy is a native of New Orleans, from the 9th Ward, not far from Wayne and YM member Maine and was an original member of Squad Up.

After Wayne disbanded the group, he and Dizzy found themselves ironically working with the same DJ, Raj Smoove and ended up resolving their differences. Wayne knowing Dizzy's talents, asked him to join his label and the next movement, Young Money.

Dizzy's style is more of a hardcore street lyricist, bringing a rawer aspect to the camp, hence his name. He will appear on the next YM mixtape and on their highly anticipated album dropping in October.

Check out the Young Money web site HERE .