Originally assembled by Tupac in the mid-1990s by pulling members from a number of his affiliate groups, the Outlawz are back and stronger than ever. Notoriously associated with the legendary rap / hip-hop icon, the late Tupac Shakur; this new Outlawz album shows that they can stand on their own and it is great to see them coming at us so strong. The album has a little something for everyone. Joints for the ladies, for the g's and the sounds are fresh and varied.

With the release of their upcoming new album 'Outlaw 4 Life 2005 A.P.' due in stores April 19, 2005 on 33rd Street Records; The Outlawz have released their tour information plus they have sent this mp3 of 'Celebrate' off the album for the fans to get a taste of the new album. Get the mp3 HERE . Right click and Save As. (This will not be up long, so if you want it grab it and save it - Thanks to the Outlawz for providing us with it for you.)

The Outlawz will be playin on the The Spring Bling Tour and it features Outlawz, Trick Daddy and Too Short. If they get to an area near you, make sure you get to see the legendary Outlawz.
