This coming weekend is going to be super crazy, I mean CRAZY!

Dame Grease, one of rap music's best selling producers who's tracks has been featured on over 30 million critically acclaimed albums such as all of the DMX's albums, Fat Joe, the Lox, Mary J. Blige, The Notorious B.I.G, Juelz and Nas just to name a few; will be locked into his Vacant Lot studio.

A month ago, Grease made one of his new prized tracks available to the public for FREE and all aspiring and unsigned artist got to chance to record over the Grease beat and submit it in hopes of winning a full demo album deal completely produced by super producer Dame Grease himself.

When the news hit the streets, it was crazy. Within 3 weeks Grease received over 1,250 submissions from all over the world and decided to reach out to Roc Cayard, who's just experienced major success with the launch of his Hood Certified DVD series.

Roc Cayard and his Hood Certified team were hand selected by Grease to be there live in the million dollar studio with Grease this whole weekend to listen and select a winner out to the contest. The finalist will also be featured on the next volume of Hood Certified DVD series (www.HoodCertified.com). Winners will be announced in the coming weeks.
