In addition, world-renowned adult actresses Tera Patrick, Carmen Luvana, and Violet Blue will also be making stage appearances, performing, and signing autographs.

"Having George Clinton join the already star-studded musical line-up once again proves that the Exotic Erotic Ball will always maintain its tradition providing the very best musical performances for its participants," states Entertainment Director and emcee, Paul Nathan.

George Clinton ( <http://www.georgeclinton.com> ) mastermind of the Parliament/Funkadelic collective, revolutionized R&B during the "70s, by twisting soul music into funk by adding influences from his heroes: Jimi Hendrix, Frank Zappa, and Sly Stone. The Parliament/Funkadelic machine ruled black music during the "70s, capturing over 40 R&B hit singles (including three number ones) and recording three platinum albums. During the "80s George Clinton recorded with the P-Funk All-Stars and in the "90s recorded solo albums with Prince's Paisley Park label, securing himself as a true forefather or rock and influencer of countless hip-hop and rap artists.

Called "The World's Wildest and Sexiest Party," by E! Entertainment TV, the Exotic Erotic Ball and Expo has hosted numerous leading musical acts during its 26-year history, titillating San Francisco audiences. Joan Jett and the Blackhearts, Everclear, Chris Issak, Sugar Ray, 2 Live Crew, Joe Satriani and Grace Jones are just a few of the headlining acts to have graced the Exotic Erotic Ball's mainstage over the years.
