We have some great news. The ThugLifeArmy.com family is growing.

The site co-Admin and his lady, Kat, are having a baby, and we could not be happier for them.

It is said the God only blesses things He can agree with and the union of these two unique individuals is surely blessed.

I have known Keith for a few years now. We have grown into good friends and I am truly happy that a person like Keith and his lady are going to have a baby.

The baby is due in February. We will not know if it is a boy or a girl until the baby makes an appearance. The couple do not want to know ahead of time.

We have some of the first pictures of the 'Lil Keith and Kate Project to share. These are from the second sonogram. The first did not really show the baby well but as you can see below everything is on schedule and the baby is just growing and waiting for the day, when the time is right to enter the world.

We will keep you updated on the birth of the newest member to our little extended family, and for you who do not know – this blessing from God could not happen to two nicer people; and that's real talk.

Here are the recent pics:
