As the execution date for Crip co-founder Stan Tookie Williams grows closer, the grass roots movement to seek clemency for the man who has spent many of his 25 years of incarceration in solitary confinement continues to grow.

Hip-hop culture grass roots organizers, rappers, actors, religious leaders and politicians all asking California governor Arnold Schwarzenegger to grant clemency for Stanley Tookie Williams, who is scheduled to be executed by intravenous injection December 13, 2005.

Here is an updated version of the hip-hop video "Real Soon" featuring an intro by Jamie Foxx discussing the 'save "Tookie" Williams' efforts. The video features west coast rap artists Snoop Dogg, Nate Dogg, Kurupt, Daz Dillinger.
