The Florida Entertainment Summit is a one day entertainment conference that focuses its efforts on empowering independent recording artists, film makers and aspiring models to compete strategically on the business side of the entertainment industry.

The Florida Entertainment Summit is proud to announce their adoption of hip-hop rap artist Trick Daddy's non-profit organization, Trick Luv Da Kids, Inc. As a non-profit partner, Florida Entertainment Summit will assist Trick Daddy in raising funds to support initiatives created by the Trick Luv Da Kids, Inc Organization. The first fundraising event is scheduled for Saturday, October 29, 2005.

After attending panel discussions on film, modeling and music, registrants of the Florida Entertainment Summit will join Atlantic Records Recording Rap Artist Trick Daddy, his celebrity friends and Atlantic Records "Single Parent Initiative" for the Trick Luv Da Kids Spooktacular Halloween Fundraising Party. Portions of the Florida Entertainment Summit registration fees will be donated to Trick Luv Da Kids, Inc in support of their efforts to raise funds and awareness for the Boys and Girls Club on the Gulf Coast affected by Hurricane Katrina and Rita. Come join them if you can.

When:

Saturday, October 29, 2005 (all day event)
