

Star-Studded Denver Bash Celebration Party and Red Carpet Extravaganza, a star-studded event, will take place for the first time at Union Station on Feb. 18th and 19th.

The gala will attract NBA All-Stars, NFL players, music icons and A-list Hollywood celebrities. The red carpet will broadcast live from Union Station at 10 P.M. (MST) on KS 107.5 radio. Also, Denver purveyors of ultra-luxury goods will showcase their wares. Sponsors of the spectacular red carpet gala include:

 John Elway Lamborghini will showcase the limited edition Saleen S7 – an ultra-high performance roadster that retails for $440,000 – on the red carpet. Introduced in 2003, less than 50 of the super customized cars have been built. Each car is custom- fitted specially for its owner and built to order.

 Oster Jewelers will showcase selected limited edition pieces from their trunk show, including some of the most collectible watches in the world --- from Ademars Pieguet (worn by Arnold Schwarzenegger, Usher and rap hip-hop icon Jay-Z), Parmigiani, Pierre Kunz, and Ulysse Nardin; and Oster's unique jewelry creations, featuring fancy colored diamonds (yellow, green, pink, and blue). The Oster Jewelers trunk show happens Thursday through Sunday at 251 Steele Street, Cherry Creek North.

 Teplitzky and Scott Fine Art, a private Fine Arts dealer based in Evergreen Colorado, will showcase pieces from their extensive collection of African tribal antiquities. Teplitzky and Scott Fine Art focuses on both contemporary and ethnic arts and has placed works in extensive private and museum collections throughout the world.

The red carpet will broadcast live from Union Station at 10 P.M. (MST) on KS 107.5 radio, and is hosted by BET's "Rap City" Mad Linx.

On Friday, February 18th the star-studded evening will be hosted by Atlanta-based hip-hop rapper-producer-songwriter-record mogul and newly appointed President of Virgin Records, Jermaine Dupri, along with Atlantic Recording artist Fabolous, who will be performing live at 11:30 PM (MST).
