Hip-hop / rap star Wyclef Jean and his fashion designer wife Marie Claudinette Jean have adopted a baby from their native Haiti.

Wyclef Jean is an avid campaigner for the troubled Caribbean island, which has witnessed escalating violence over the past year, despite a United Nations presence in the country.

At a friend's party in New York City on Sunday, the gushing Jeans proudly showed off their new daughter Angelina Claudinelle, who they adopted three weeks ago.
