Keak Da Sneak is one of the most unique and respected hip-hop artists to ever come from the west coast. A pioneer of the Bay Area hip hop and rap sound, Keak burst onto the scene with groundbreaking work in the group 3X Krazy and would go on to much success as a solo hip hop and rap artist. His group and solo releases have totaled over a combined 300,000 units sold to date, largely from independent buzz and a very loyal fan base.

After recently appearing on MTV's popular show, "My Super Sweet 16" and being featured on Bay Area hip hop legend E-40's monster hit "Tell Me When To Go," Keak is making his KOCH Records debut with his brand new studio album, Deified.

Alan Grunblatt, General Manager of KOCH Records, offers, "Keak Da Sneak is one of the most important hip hop artists recording today. I am thrilled to have him on our great hip hop roster."

Showcasing Keak's trademark raspy baritone and off balanced flow, Deified continues the classic sound that Keak fans have come to know and love. With guest appearances from Bay Area hip hop stars E-40, Too Short, Mistah Fab, Jacka of the Mob Figaz, Daz Dillinger and also Lil KeKe, Prodigy of Mobb Deep, Alchemist and a few others. Keak has production credits from Young Mozart and Chops just to name a few. This album is long awaited and this release is sure to bang from the left coast and far beyond.
