Suge Knight

The CEO of Death Row Records Suge Knight made an appearance on CBS's the Late Late Show on Friday November 19th. Suge had come to clear up rumors about him being involved in or being the cause of the attack on Dr. Dre at last Monday's Vibe Awards. The rumors were quickly denied as Suge seemed upset at the fact everybody had been blaming him for the incident. For the past week certain radio stations nation wide as well as web sites all over the net have been feeding the rumor that Suge Knight was responsible for the attack in some way.

Also touched on were such topics as Petey Pablo, Against Tha Grain, and more were touched on also. (See our earlier report on the Suge accusations HERE .)
