San Francisco Bay area native and rap artist Celly Cel will release his seventh studio album on February 22, 2005 titled "It"z Real Out Here," by Realside Records.

Born Marcellus McCarver, Celly Cel grew up in the San Francisco Bay Area and released his first album in 1994, "Heat 4 Yo Azz." In 1995, he released "Killa Kali," his best-selling album to date which featured the classic, "It's Goin' Down." After several solo album releases and a few artist collaborations, Celly Cel did a one album project with Boss Up Muzik in 2002 and released his sixth solo project, "Wsong"z U Can't Find," which featured rap and hip-hop artists C-Bo, Beesh, E-40, B-Legit and Homicide among other artists.

The new tracks showcase Celly's outstanding ability to marry clever rhyme with lyrics and will feature guest appearances from E-40, W.C., Federation, Jay Tee, Juvenile and Hillside Stranglaz. The first single, "I Want You" features the sultry vocals of Art N" Soul and has been added to radio. Promotions for the newly added single are underway at press time.

"It"z Real Out Here" was produced by Celly Cel. It was recorded and mixed at Find-A-Way Studios in Hayworth, California. A complete track listing is as follows:

1- Neva Leave U Again
