Vampire Hip Hop Comedy Feature Film now Casting

Recently voted as one of Hip Hop's top filmmaker's writer, producer and director Tim Greene is looking for his next group of break out stars with his new Hip Hop Vampire comedy film.

The PG-Rated film will start shooting in the spring in New York, Philly and Los Angeles. Some of Tim's past actor finds have went on to act in films with Jim Carey, Adam Sandler, Chris Rock, Jamie Fox, The Wayans Brothers and appear on networks such as HBO, BET, and on shows such as Def Comedy Jam and get over 24 million votes on America's Got Talent on NBC (Rappin Granny). Tim is also days away for singing a major film label deal which will allow him to release as many as 5 feature films a year.

The film's title and plot are under wraps for now.

Tim Greene is looking for the following:

Lead male vampire: age 18 to 35 (unique look and comedic talent a plus)

Lead female vampire: age 18 to 35 (Model Types!)

Male or female sidekick: age 18 to 35

Detectives: age 25 to 45 (male or female)

Extras for club scenes: age 18 to 30

Please no phone calls this time or e-mails to the Los Angeles , Philly or Charlotte offices. We get over six thousand submissions and they all go to Mrs. Wiseman and her staff in casting and not to Mr. Tim Greene. Tim would love to use every actor possible, but can only cast so many actors per picture.

Submission deadline is March 10th 2007.

Send in CD for soundtrack consideration and headshot or reel for actor consideration to:

Mrs. Amy Wiseman
