Not only is DJ WILLIE one of the pioneers in bringing Reggaeton to the streets, he has re-mixed some of the hottest Reggaeton re-mixes as well, 50 cent Window Shopper feat. Cruz, Kanye West Goddigger amongst others. These re-mixes produced by DJ Willie have helped the genre of Reggaeton crossover into mainstream America by taking a hot Hip-hop or rap song and making a Reggaeton re-mix out of it.

"I started doing these re-mixes out of necessity rather than just doing them for the hell of it!" DJ Willie explains. "What happened is it became a hip thing to do. Labels are looking at it as another form of music because it is getting so much exposure on the new formatted radio-stations that keep popping up."
