"The Very Best of Death Row"

Available Feb. 22, 05

Back on 12-13-04 we mentioned that legendary rap label Death Row Records', CEO Marion 'Suge' Knight had officially announced the upcoming release of a new album entitled 'The Very Best of Death Row'.

The album will be released on February 22, 2005 and distributed through Koch Entertainment. It is now available for pre-order. Click the logo to place your pre-order.

Tracklist and cover art will be coming real soon.

The last official release from Death Row Records was late rapper Tupac Shakur's 'Tupac Live'.

Marion 'Suge' Knight and Death Row Records pushed the release date forward 4 days for 'Tupac Live' because of internet bootlegging. It was released this past August.

Due to the recent events that occurred with the new Tupac release 'Loyal to the Game' (Amaru/Interscope), bootlegging will most likely be a concern with this Death Row release also. It is a growing trend in hip hop and rap and other areas also.
