The 6th posthumously released studio album from the late hip hop icon Tupac Shakur (2Pac) has an official street release date of November 21, 2006. The album is titled 'pac's Life'.

The album commemorates the 10 year anniversary of the late poet, activist, actor, hip hop icon and rap music's G.O.A.T.; the legendary Tupac Shakur (2Pac).

The album includes the singles 'Pac's Life' which was produced by LT Hutton and features hip hop and rap artists T.I. and Ashanti, and 'Untouchable' the Swizz Beatz Remix featuring the luminary hip hop group Bone Thugs-n-Harmony.

The album also includes unreleased music featuring some of the biggest names in the hip hop and rap game including Young Buck, Keyshia Cole, Lil Scrappy and The Outlawz.

Full track listing should be available soon and the cover is attached to this article. Watch for the album and support the legacy of one of the greatest artists to come out of the hip hop culture.
